

Leased Access

Pursuant to FCC CFR 47, 76.1707, a cable operator may adopt and enforce a written and published policy of prohibiting programming which it reasonably believes is patently offensive, however, this cable operator has adopted no such policy to enforce.